01. Organizational document changes (Part VI, line 4)

The Board of Directors adopted amended bylaws on June 26, 2026. Significant changes include two-year terms with a maximum of three consecutive terms; officers changed to President, Vice President, and Secretary, eliminating the Treasurer and Board Chair positions; the Executive Director designated as a non-voting, ex-officio participant; addition of electronic and anonymous voting provisions; addition of conflict of interest and recusal provisions; and clarification of quorum, voting, and attendance requirements.

02. Form 990 governing body review (Part VI, line 11)

The tax return is provided to the Board of Directors for their review and approval prior to filing the return.

03. Conflict of interest policy compliance (Part VI, line 12c)

Members of the Board of Directors sign a conflict of interest policy statement annually. There is also a conflict of interest statement in the volunteer handbook. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Directors and members of committees with Governing Board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Governing Board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon.

The remaining Board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. An interested person may make a presentation at the Governing Board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. The chairperson of the Governing Board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Governing Board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. If the Governing Board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Governing Board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

04. CEO, executive director, top management comp (Part VI, line 15a)

The Board of Directors, independent of the Executive Director, determines annual salary. In the Fall of 2020, a review of the ASU Lodestar Center for Philanthropy & Nonprofit Innovation's Nonprofit Compensation and Benefits 2019 report was reviewed to assure adherence to guidelines.

05. Governing documents, etc., available to public (Part VI, line 19)

All governing documents, policies, and financial statements are available upon request. The 990 is available on the website.

FY26 Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Since 2003, Bag It has provided individuals with cancer and their families with educational resources, information, and practical tools to help them navigate and cope with cancer diagnosis and treatment. The Bag It Bag supports individuals throughout the cancer experience, from diagnosis and treatment through survivorship and end-of-life care, recognizing that people are living longer with and beyond cancer. The Bag It Bag is available in English and as a Spanish Bicultural Bag. Bag It also collaborates with other nonprofit cancer organizations to develop and provide cancer-specific bags and resources.

To date, Bag It has provided more than 110,000 Bag It Bags to individuals with cancer and their families. Bags are distributed across all 50 states and Puerto Rico through oncology and radiology practices, clinics, hospitals, Indian Health Service (IHS) facilities, tribal health centers, nonprofit organizations, and other healthcare facilities. Bag It has established regular distribution relationships with healthcare professionals in Arizona, Nebraska, Montana, Texas, California, and Alaska, while continuing to expand its reach across the United States. Individuals throughout the U.S. may also request bags directly from Bag It for themselves or as gifts for someone affected by cancer.

Patient and healthcare professional feedback continues to demonstrate the value of the program. Patients report that the Bag It Bag helps them cope with cancer, worry less, stay more organized, and communicate more effectively with their healthcare team. Healthcare professionals report that the Bag It Bag provides a valuable, tangible resource they can offer patients at a particularly challenging time and helps reinforce the information and support provided by their care team.

Bag It also partners with The Beacon Group, a local Arizona nonprofit that provides employment opportunities for people with disabilities, to assemble and ship Bag It Bags. In addition, Bag It was selected as the primary beneficiary of a local bicycle race for the thirteenth consecutive year, providing additional community visibility and financial support for the organization's mission.

Bag It's 5-day leadership conference for cancer advocates, Escape to THRIVE (Encouraging and Sustaining Cancer Advocacy Programs and Efforts) 14th conference was evaluated to be a huge success by attendees from across the country. This conference, small by design with over 35 participants represented a range of cancer types, backgrounds, ages and advocacy experiences. This conference impacts hundreds of cancer patients and survivors as attendees return home with many new skills and improved attitudes to continue their advocacy work. The overall goals are to build capacity, develop collaborations and explore self-care.
Since its launch in 2011, over 220 organizations have been represented at Escape to THRIVE.
